

SENATOR CULLAN: Okay. Thank you very much, Senator Clark.

SENATOR CLARK: If there is I'd be glad to pull it back later because it makes no difference to me.

PRESIDENT: Senator Newell.

SENATOR NEWELL: Mr. President, members of the body. I had opposed this bill earlier and asked that it be pulled off of consent file. Since that time I've had some things, some clarifications, etc. that I feel comfortable with it. It is basically an arrangement which the Education Association and the state college system has agreed to jointly work this proposal. I think, therefore since it's agreed to by both parties, that there is no problem and that bill ought to go through. It is needed. It sanctifies an agreement between the two opposing parties in this case.

PRESIDENT: Senator Frank Lewis.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: To reiterate what Senator Clark said. They both asked for it before the committee. It was an agreed bill, there is no conflict.

PRESIDENT: The question is the suspension of the rules. Record your vote. Record.

CLERK: 30 ayes, 0 nays on motion to suspend the rules.

PRESIDENT: The rules are suspended. We're on Final Reading. All senators please return to your desks. Would all senators kindly return to your desks. Senator DeCamp. Senator Simon.

CLERK: Read title to LB 368.

PRESIDENT: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is, shall LB 368 pass. That does not have the emergency clause? Record your vote. Have you voted? Record.

CLERK: (Read record vote found on pages 1218 and 1219 of the Journal). 36 ayes, 1 nay, 12 not voting.

PRESIDENT: LB 368 passes on Final Reading. That completes Final Reading. The Chair would like to announce that, with the Speakers' permission, Mr. Frank Zarb, former czar of the Federal Energy Administration, is going to appear before us shortly after 11 o'clock this morning. He's in Lincoln in connection with "E Week" at the University. We are fortunate to have a man like Mr. Zarb. He will give about a five minute talk sometime between 11 and 11:30. We go to special order. Criminal Code. We're on Section 8.

CLERK: Mr. President, all amendments to Article 7 have been disposed of.

PRESIDENT: This is Article 8, I'm sorry. Senator Barnett.

SENATOR BARNETT: Mr. President, members. Before I get started I'd like to make a point of personal privilege and introduce to you my youngest daughter who has been running around here. She's going to be with me today since I'm babysitting. The oldest one was operated on yesterday and Mother is with her, so I'm babysitting. So if you see her running
